

SLAY ME NOT

Under so many guises I came to you
In one way a defender and the other to rescue
I became your life provider
And the next moment I was your daughter
Under the dark clouds when you stumbled
I even proved to be your life partner.

I gave and gave and never took
For single penny in return I never looked Like a dumb mouth I never spoke
Only heard...befalling tragedies I tried to soak.

So in what and where was I a harm?
That you slew me and swept away all my charm
You threw me in the hands of darkness and death
But I illumined your life and lighted your path.

Neither importance, nor chance, nor you gave me any heed
My fate laid in the dust of your feet
O world, lend me you ear
Why close your eyes to the fact?
That I am your ultimate root
And that you all are my heir.

I need to be brought up
Or your fall is indispensable
Turn the pages of the past
And the imprints of my identity and glory will glow up.

Imagine the world without me
I am sure you imagine everywhere a misery
You have seen the polite phase of my life
Now it is time to watch my intense power.

What if I could not make my yesterday victorious
Today is mine
And with me
Your tomorrow shall shine.

By: Shalini Rahi
Class: XII