

In keeping with the gaiety and joy of the approaching festive season, Him Jyoti once again stole the hearts of all present on the occasion of the Inter-class Hindi dramatised elocution competition. Shri. Vidukesh Vimal, Smt. Anita Nautiyal and Shri. Kapil Khankriyal , presided as the judges.

All the classes performed with utmost fervour and enthusiasm. Each class presented a well enacted performance, on selected Hindi poems by well known poets like Ma keh ek kahani by Shri. Maithili Sharan Gupt , Kadam ka ped by Smt. Subhadra Kumari Chauhan , Phir kya hoga uske baad by Shri. Bal Krishna Rao -all displaying the beautiful bond between a mother and child. The power of both, Kalam aur talwar by Shri. Ramdhari Singh 'Dinkar' was very beautifully presented by the students of class VIII . The heartrending, Ma ki iccha –poet unknown- by the girls of class IX, brought a lump to everyone's throat. The senior section presented inspiring poems like Navin kalpana karo by Shri. Gopal Singh Nepali , Badal ko girte dekha by Shri. Nagarjun and Matre mandir ki aur by Smt. Subhadra Kumari Chauhan. Props and innovative special effects added to the wonderful display of talent of HimJyotians. It indeed was a spectacular performance, which enraptured the audience and was undoubtedly, a delectable feast to the eyes.

The programme concluded with words of appreciation from all the judges who lauded the endeavours of the girls, in presenting such a marvellous show.
