New Beginnings

On 1st April 2024, we joyfully welcomed new admissions to our Middle Wing. It was a day of new beginnings, as parents entrusted their precious daughters to our care, marking the start of a journey filled with growth and independence.

Our dedicated students played an integral role in this transition, warmly welcoming the newcomers and guiding them through the dorms. Their support and camaraderie fostered a sense of community that filled the air with excitement and anticipation.

Self Defense Session

"Fear is a reaction, but courage is a decision."

KAVACH, a leading organization specialising in self-defense, recently organized an empowering Self-Defense Session at Him Jyoti school. The session was designed to equip students with essential self-defense skills and techniques, ensuring they feel confident and prepared to handle any situation.

Annual Excursion

On 5th April, Class 12 went on an exciting three-day excursion to Delhi. The girls visited some of the most iconic landmarks in the city, including Qutub Minar and Bangla Sahib Gurudwara. They delved into governance and explored the rich legacy of our leaders at the Prime Minister Museum and President's Museum. They also ignited their curiosity at the National Science Museum and paid respects at India Gate.

The captivating light & sound show in the evening at Prime Minister's Sanghralay added magic to their journey. On 7th April, the students visited EY office at Gurugram, and attended a dynamic communications workshop. We sincerely thank Mr. Rajiv Memani, Chairman & Managing Partner of EY India, and President of the Himalayan School Society for his guidance and support in shaping the learning journey of our students.

Rubik's Cube Workshop

"Unlocking minds, one cube at a time!"

On 15th April 2024, a Rubik's Cube Workshop led by Mr. Vikas Mahto, who is a professional Speed-Cubing coach was held in Him Jyoti School. The workshop aimed to introduce students to the fundamentals of solving the Rubik's Cube while fostering creativity, perseverance, and critical thinking skills.

CET-Year of the Youth Competition

Two teachers of Him Jyoti School, Mr Dinesh Rawat and Ms Priyanka Randhawa, and their students team, secured second and fifth positions in the Year of the Youth competition conducted by Commonwealth Education Trust. The dedication and hard work of our teachers have shone brightly on the Commonwealth stage.

Talent wins games, but teamwork and intelligence wins championships.

Kathakali Presentation

Under the aegis of Spic Macay, Him Jyoti School hosted a captivating Kathakali performance by the acclaimed artist, Shri Kalamandalam Ramachandran Unnithan. He presented the timeless friendship between Krishna and Sudama through his performance. This remarkable presentation served as a poignant celebration of friendship and the cultural heritage of Kathakali, enriching our school community with its brilliance.

Rug-Making Workshop

On 18th April 2024, a workshop on Rug Making was conducted by Ms Amrit Marbaniang of Project Purukul. The students gained valuable textile skills and knowledge through the enriching and interactive workshop.

Tinker Fest 2024

Four girls, guided by their teacher, Mr Dinesh Rawat, went to PYDS for Tinker Fest 2024. They participated in “The Scamper Sprint” event, a thrilling project-building competition. The girls showcased their problem-solving prowess and creativity by solving a problem using only waste materials.

Folk Vibes

On 29th April 2024, our girls participated in a folk dance competition held at Kasiga School.

With infectious energy, they dazzled the audience with their rendition of the vibrant Lavani Dance. Their expressive performance left everyone spellbound.

Scholarship at MUWCI

We are proud to share that yet another Him Jyotian has secured a prestigious scholarship at Mahindra United World College of India (MUWCI). Nidhi Tangariya will pursue her 11th and 12th grades over the next two years. She has been awarded a scholarship of INR 49,61,250 for the entire duration of her studies. Amid fierce global competition, Nidhi excelled in the selection process, showcasing her skills through compelling essays and a standout interview.

INSPIRE Award 2023-24

Kiran from Class 7 has been selected for the prestigious INSPIRE Award 2023-24. Her idea stood out to the INSPIRE Award committee, earning her a spot in the next round of the competition.

Kiran's project, titled "Light for Life" aims to provide a practical solution for individuals navigating through dark environments, such as forests or areas with no streetlights, by embedding illumination within footwear. She has received a scholarship of Rs. 10,000 from the committee to develop her prototype for the district- level Science Exhibition.

Spectrum 2024

On 4th May 2024, Him Jyoti girls attended the Spectrum – a multidisciplinary art event at the Unison World School. 22 schools participated in this mega-event.

Durga Bisht and Anushka Juyal stood first in Dastangoi. Gayatri Bisht, Akansha, and Yogita secured the second position in Imaginarium for their animated character modelling.

Iti Natya Competition 2024

The Valley of Words, in collaboration with Yi (Young Indians), brought forth the captivating “Iti Natya Competition” at FRI on 5th May 2024.

Fifteen girls took center stage and gave a stunning performance inspired by Mahakavi Kalidasa’s Abhijyanshaktuntalam in Sanskrit. Their flawless dialogue delivery in Sanskrit inspired awe and admiration from the audience.

Kalataru 2024

Seven girls from classes 7 to 12 participated in an inter-school competition hosted by The Oasis School on 4th May 2024. Pooja Gariya and Harshita of Class 7 clinched the 3rd position in “Stories with Clay - Family or Friends” while Karina, Riya, and Sunishtha of Class 8 secured the 2nd spot in “Waste to Wonder - Fairy House”.

Prefectorial Elections 2024

"Children are not objects to be shaped, but individuals to be nurtured and developed."

Elections for the Prefectorial Board of 2023-24 were held on May 13th. Candidates passionately campaigned for their positions through compelling speeches.

Following this, students of Class 12 and the school faculty cast their votes electronically in a room transformed into a polling booth specifically for this event. The process mirrored that of the Legislative Assembly elections.

Alumni Spotlight

We were thrilled to welcome Anjali Godiyal, a proud alumna of Batch of 2015.

Anjali, who is now a dedicated nursing officer at AIIMS Rishikesh, graciously donated to support ourschool. She also conducted an enlightening workshop for our students. Her visit was a testament to her unwavering commitment to giving back and making a difference. We are immensely proud of Anjali and grateful for her continued support and contributions to our school.

"It is not joy that makes us grateful; it is gratitude that makes us joyful."

Nature Science Initiative organized an event to commemorate the National and Regional Award winners of the Earthian Awards, 2024. The event was hosted by Him Jyoti school and renowned bird experts, Prof. Trevor Price and Dr. Pratap Singh graced the event as its chief guests. The event was also graced by several heads and founders of schools.

Him Jyoti School, among others, earned Regional Awards for their contributions to sustainability education.

Our school team, led by the science faculty, mentored students on the topic of Biodiversity and Sustainability. Their outstanding work earned them a cash prize of Rs 10,000, showcasing their dedication and commitment to environmental stewardship.

Investiture Ceremony 2024-25

"Leadership is like a tree, in order to survive and bear the fruit of success you must have the deep roots of character, convictions, values, and purpose." —Josh Axe

The Investiture Ceremony was held on May 16th, 2024.

The school choir sang the song "Leader in me". This was followed by the Oath taking ceremony and the pinning of the badges on the newly elected members of the Prefectorial Board.

Khushi Nath, the Head Girl, in her impassioned speech, outlined her vision and dedication to uphold the school's values and honour.

It's Vacation Time!

A Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) was held on the 17th of May 2024. The meeting commenced with a cultural programme where our students showcased their skills and performed with immense enthusiasm.

The parents of the newly admitted girls who joined Him Jyoti School on 1st of April were delighted to see the remarkable progress made by their daughters in such a short span of time. Following a brief interaction between the parents and teachers, our students embarked on their well-deserved summer break.

We wish all our students a restful and enjoyable vacation and look forward to welcoming them back refreshed and ready for the new term.
